

Songs of Love

I came, I purred
And wrapped my paws around your heart.
You are my alpha and omega.
We complete each other.

I purred and I sang
My songs of love right into your heart.
You heard them and softened
Becoming as gentle as a breeze.

I purred as I told you
Of my undying and wondrous love for you.
You scratched my head
And told me of your love for me.

I purred in your ear
When you were sad and your heart hurt
With the pain the world had brought you.
I purred until the sadness lifted.

I came, I purred
And I loved you with all my heart.
My whole life is wrapped up in you.
Without you I would never again be complete.
